

Seaborn Networks' Seabras-1 Subsea Cable wins the 2016 LatinFinance Project Finance & Infrastructure Award

Boston, MA, September 30, 2016 – Seaborn Networks' Seabras-1 submarine cable project between New York and São Paulo has earned the LatinFinance 2016 Project & Infrastructure Finance Award for 'Best Infrastructure Financing: Brazil'. These awards recognize the most impressive transactions and institutions in a field critical to the region's economic progress.

For additional information regarding the award, see <http://www.latinfinance.com/Article/3584655/AWARDS-Best-Infrastructure-Financing-Brazil.html>

About Seaborn Networks

Seaborn Networks is a developer and operator of submarine fiber optic cable systems with an independent cable operator model, including Seabras-1 between New York and Sao Paulo which has a committed ready-for-service date of June 2017. Seaborn was founded by successful submarine cable and wholesale carrier executives with experience in designing, building and operating many of the world's largest submarine and terrestrial networks. For additional information, see www.seabornnetworks.com.

Seaborn Press Contact:

Kate Wilson

Phone: +1 978 471 3171

E-Mail: kate.wilson@seabornnetworks.com